1. During the period from early April to early May 1951, [REDACTED] the motor vehicle repair shop was located in the former Altwerk north of the Finow Canal, east of Max Hesse Strasse. An estimated 150 workers were employed in the repair shop. Ten NCOs were assigned to the spare parts depot. (1) Approximately 20 officers including eight majors were assigned to the installation. Major Rukhin, (fnu), is believed to be the chief of the spare parts depot. Major Kubatkin, (fnu), chief or administrative officer of the repair shop. (2)

2. On 5 April 1951, about 75 motor vehicles including 45 damaged ones were observed [REDACTED] in the area of the repair shop. [REDACTED] 25X1B
On 25 April, the newly painted trucks [REDACTED] 25X1B were picked up by a senior lieutenant and two EM. On 25 April, a major and four EM of a motor transport unit picked up spare parts in truck [REDACTED] 25X1B
Some of these trucks had come to pick up spare parts, some of them were under repair. [REDACTED] 25X1B which was observed continuously at the installation, allegedly belongs to the repair shop. (3)

3. Stocks of spare parts observed in sheds 3a and 3b during the period from 2 to 5 April 1951 included approximately 150 front and rear axles for trucks and jeeps, 40 to 50 steering wheels, approximately 400 oil filters, 40 to 50 boxes with carburetors including downdraft carburetors and two types of Solex carburetors, about 200 radiator covers for Dodge, Chevrolet and ZIS truck and jeeps, 200 to 250 crank shafts wrapped in oil paper, about 50 boxes each containing 10 clutches, clutch disk and clutch lockings, 150 to 200 rims of sizes 6.50, 7.00 and 7.50, approximately 1,000 new tires of sizes 6.50, 7.00 and 7.50, in addition to truck windows, various spring leaves, cogwheels for gear assemblies, bolts, and several types of radiators. All the spare parts were greased and stored on shelves. Three hundred used tires were observed in shed No 2.

4. On 11 May 1951, a railroad car loaded with new rims for the spare parts depot arrived at the Finow railroad station. As could be seen from the bill of lading the shipment was dispatched [REDACTED]. (4)
